

P H A S E '79

1 The papal seat was vacated twice during the year with the deaths of Pope Paul VI and his successor John Paul I. The election of Poland's Karol Wojtyla and his choice to take the name John Paul II was a surprise to all.

2 Popular model Cheryl Tiegs switched clothing and joined driver Janet Guthrie for a photo session at the Pocono International Raceway.

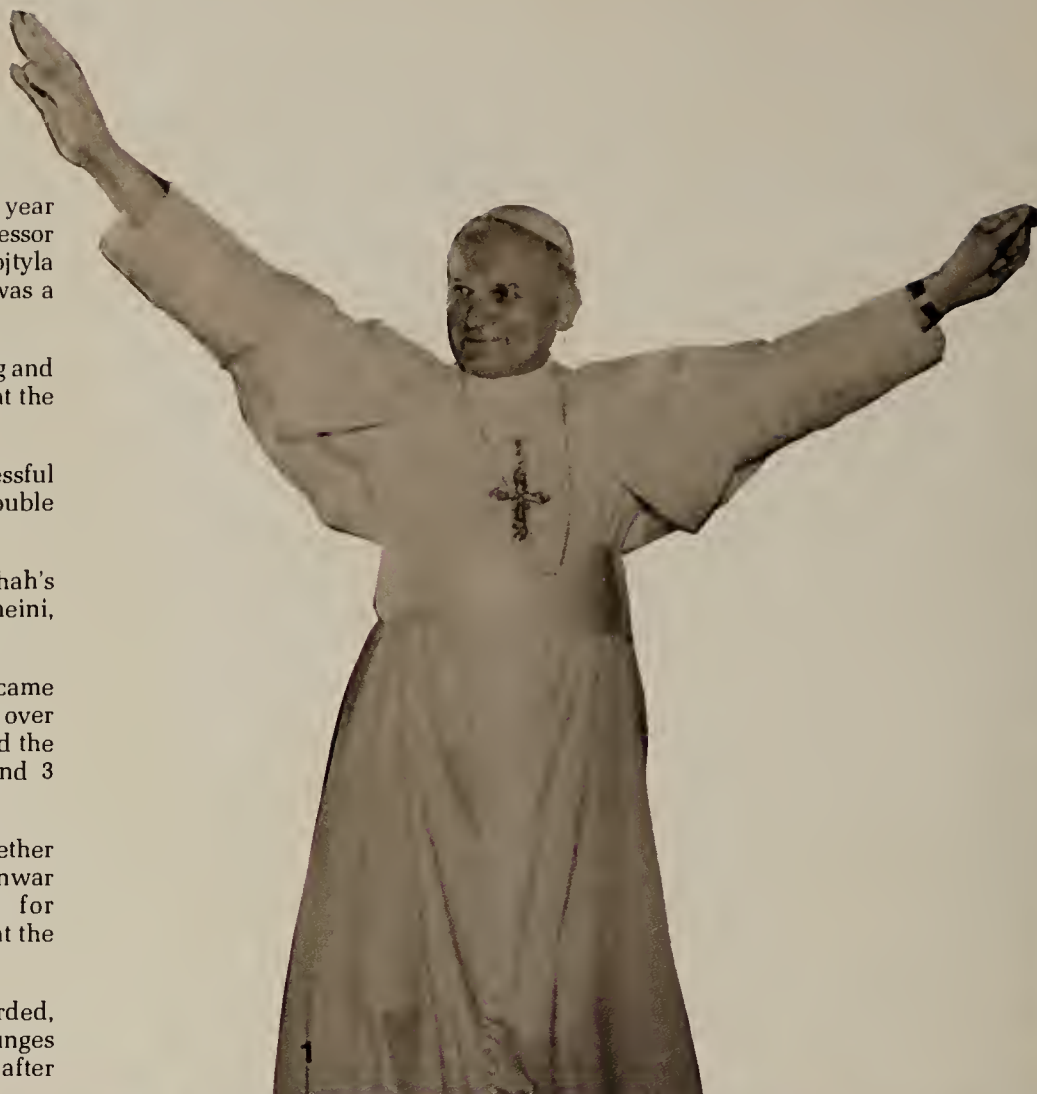

3 Three men from Arizona made the first successful flight across the Atlantic in a balloon, the Double Eagle II.

4 Iran's political turmoil resulted in the Shah's downfall and the return of the Ayatollah Khomeini, a religious leader.

5 A jungle town in Guyana, South America became the setting for the bizarre poison drink deaths of over 900 followers of Jim Jones' People's Temple, and the shooting deaths of Congressman Leo Ryan and 3 newsmen, part of a group investigating them.

6 Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin, together with President Carter and Egyptian President Anwar Sadat signed two agreements providing for negotiations of a full Middle East peace treaty at the Camp David Summit conducted in September.

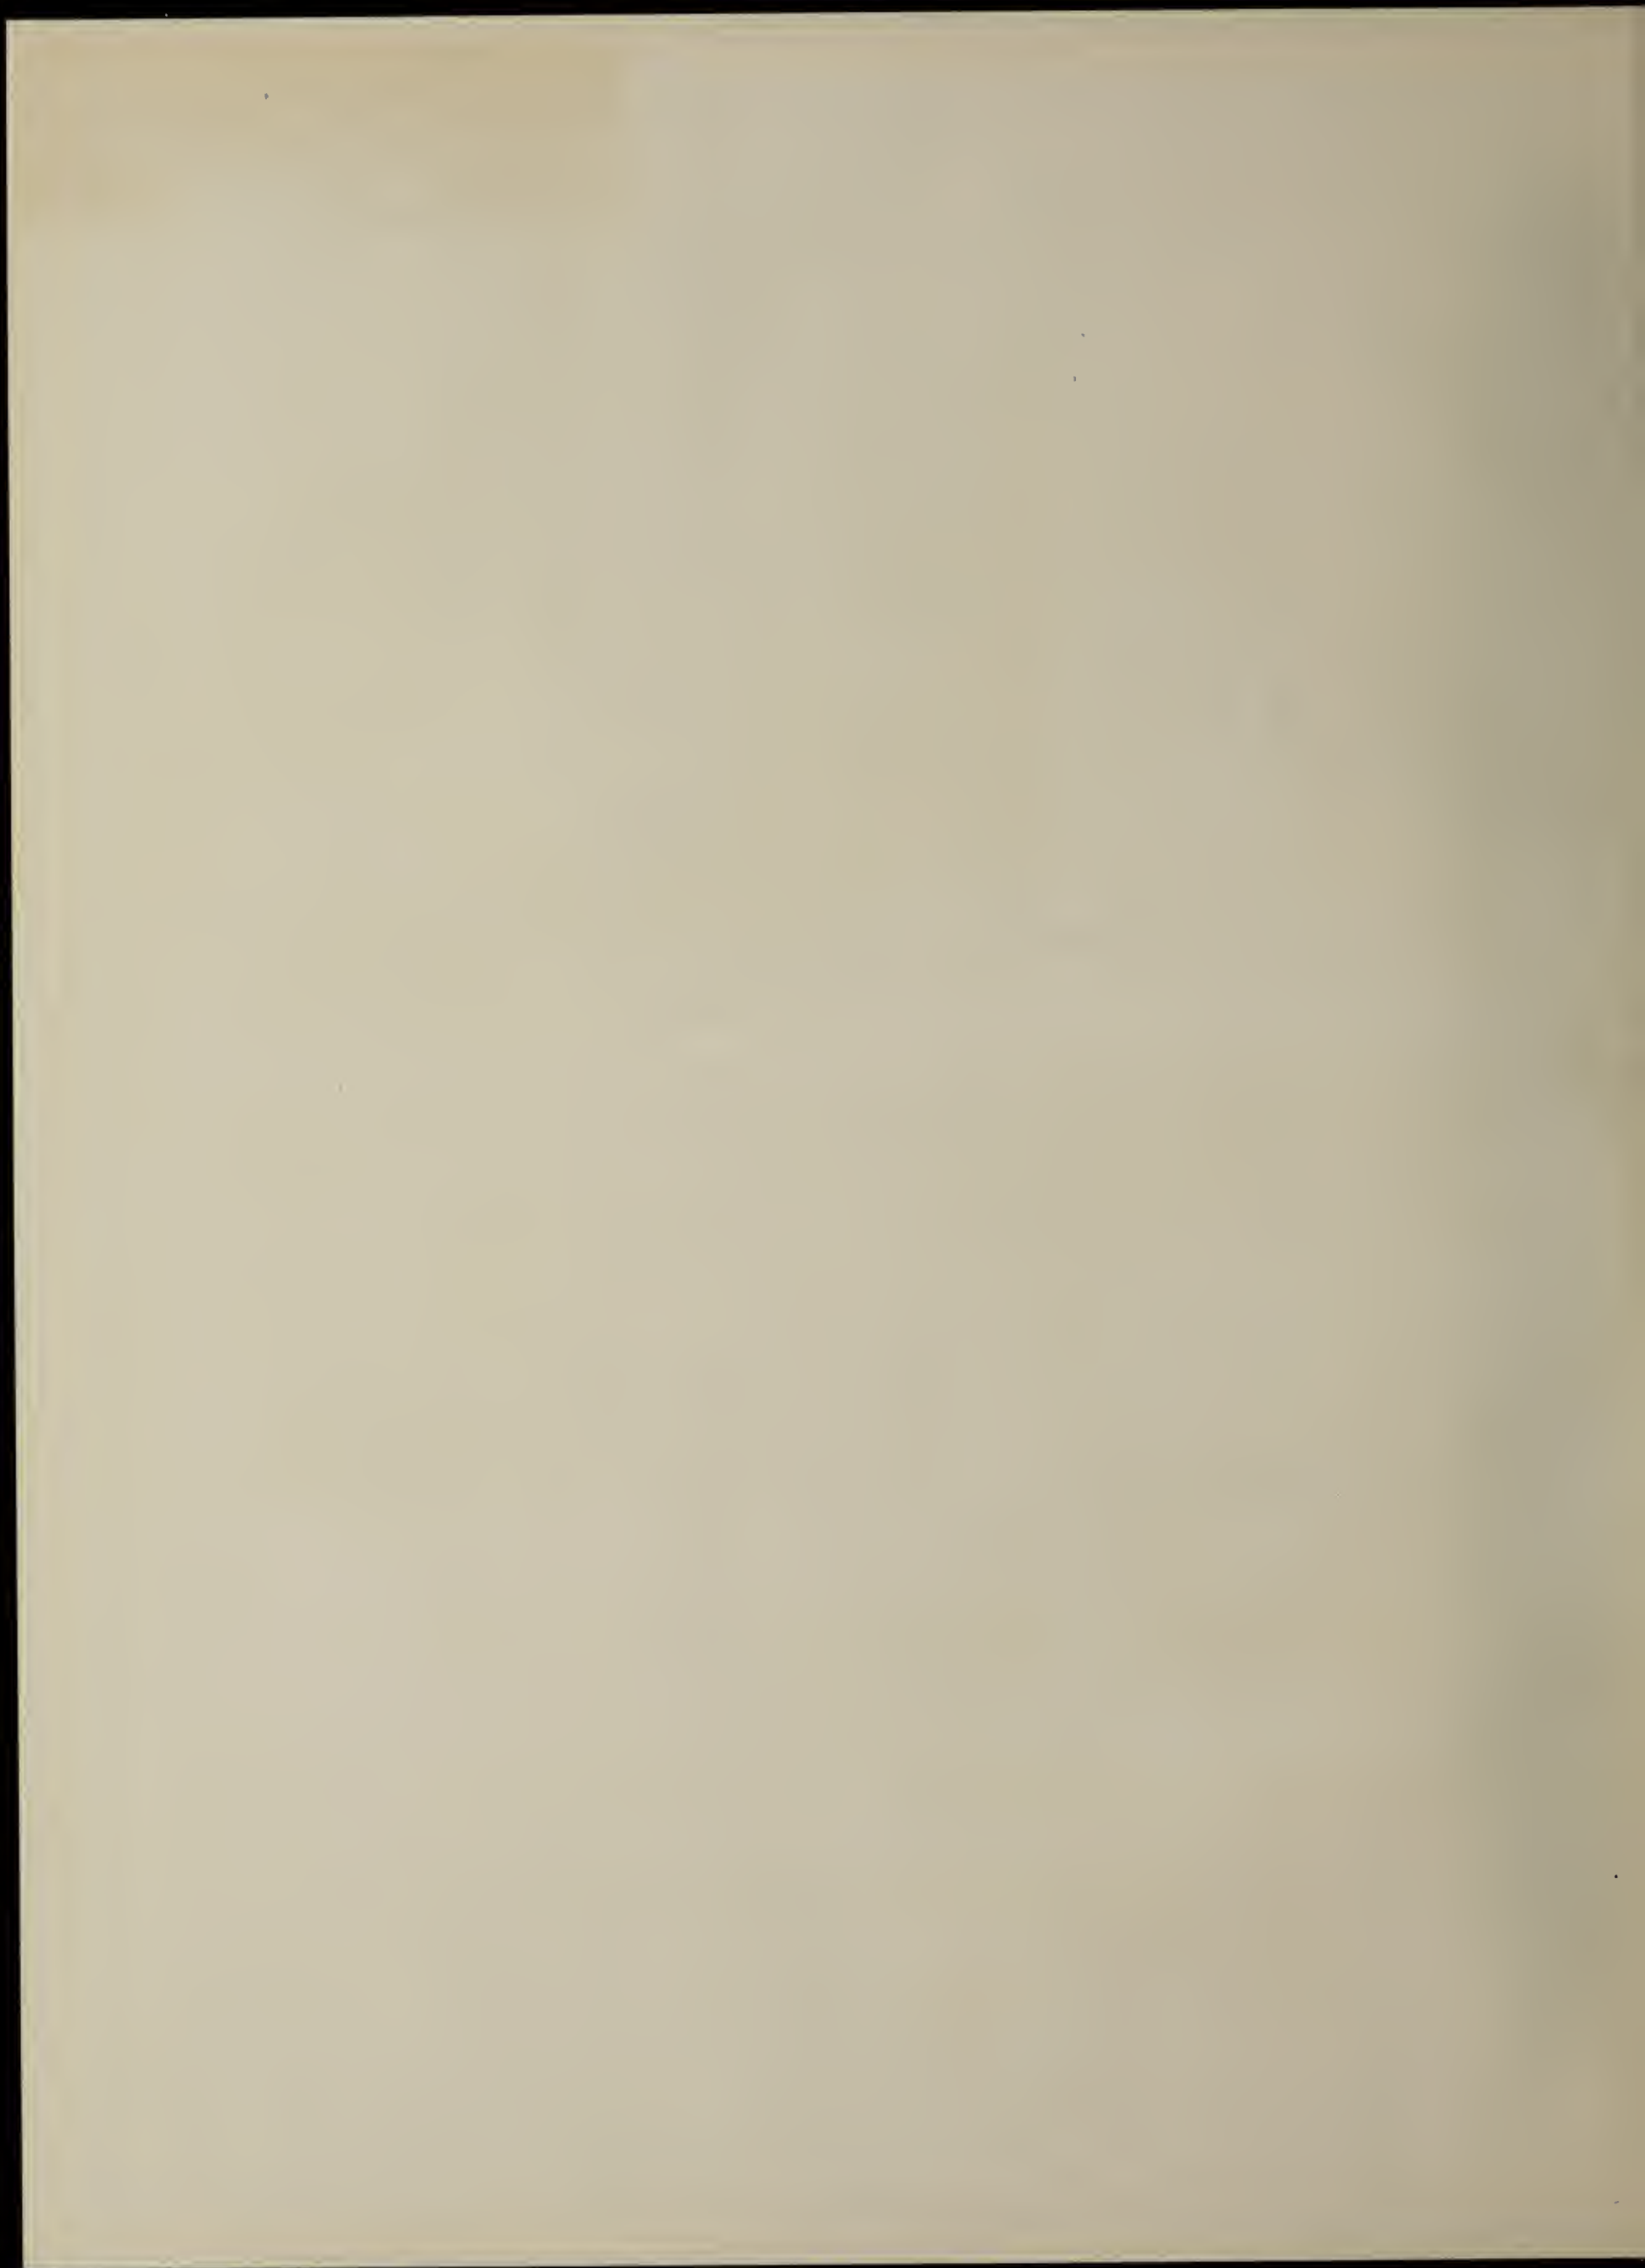

7 In the country's worst air disaster ever recorded, a PSA jet with 136 aboard, its right wing afire, plunges toward a San Diego residential neighborhood, after colliding with a small aircraft.

PHASE SEVENTY-NINE
SAINT JOSEPH'S COLLEGE
Rensselaer, Indiana
Volume 39

When we enroll at Saint Joe's

We enter a miniature world.

It is a world that for four years (hopefully?) seems very real and important.

It's a microcosm . . .

. . . filled with meetings and motions . . .

Committees and Core . . . Bell Towers and Bars.

We strive hard to make our little community work.

But in the end, we learn how insignificant
it all is . . .

. . . for it's all a game!!!

"Life is the game that must be played: This truth,
good friends, we know;

So live and laugh, nor be dismayed as one by one
the phantoms go."

— Edwin Robinson

Dedication . . .

This book is dedicated to Drexel Hall and the hundreds of individuals who lived and loved there . . .

Although it may seem ironic to dedicate a book to a building, we feel it is appropriate for this yearbook . . .

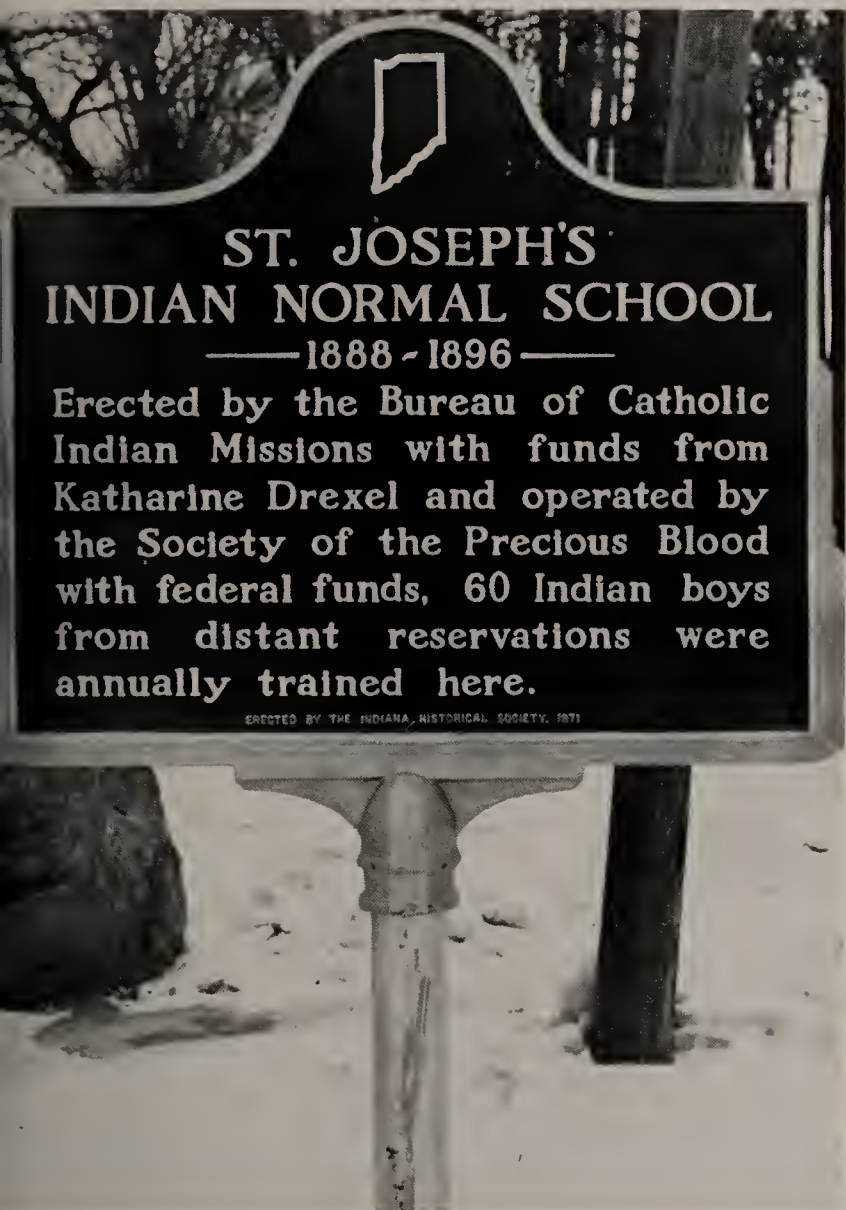

Drexel Hall was the original Saint Joseph's. It was built in 1888 to house an independent Indian boarding school. The rest of St. Joe's grew up around Drexel . . .

This summer, the hall was closed because the administration felt it was economically unfeasible to keep it open. The remaining twenty or so "Drexelites" were quickly rehoused on campus . . .

The closing of Drexel Hall is an example of the game of life. Once it was very important to St. Joe's and today it no longer exists . . .

Play the game and enjoy it. But when it is over . . . accept it and start a new game . . .

Can you pick out Kmetz and Linke?

Freshman Orientation

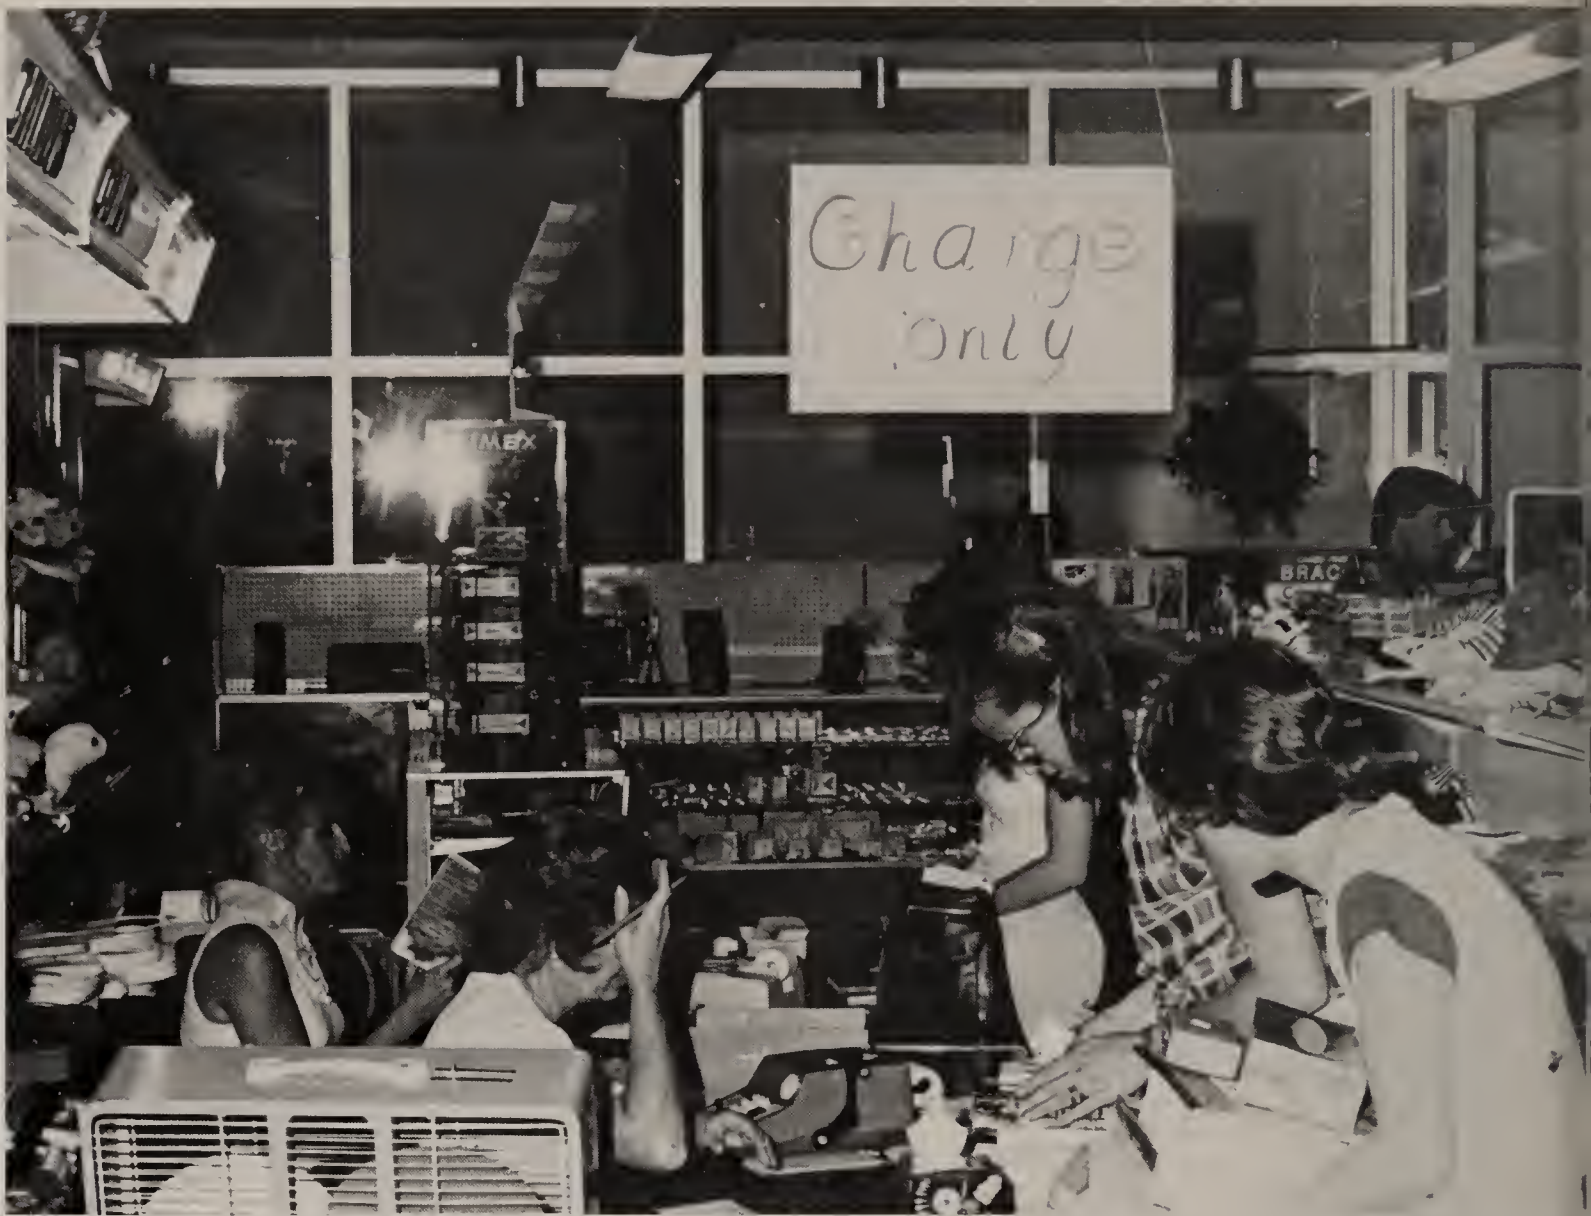

Members of the sophomore class direct students and their parents around campus.

The hardest thing I remember about orientation was saying good-bye to my family and friends.
Why did I have to go away to school? What was Saint Joe's? . . .

. . . Yet, by Thanksgiving I wondered what all the worry had been about!

In between meetings and appointments, the bookstore becomes a good rest stop. Here, new students get their first "Core Shock" (sorry girls, those little books add up!!)

Basketball and volleyball filled the opening of the school year picnic — an occasion to meet old friends and to check out the new ones.

Homecoming 1978

What is Homecoming? It's weeks of long preparation, of floats being put together, and boxes of tissues fit for the stuffing. When it arrives, you hear the familiar sounds of "hey, did you see so & so" or "is he back already?" The parade finishes at Saint Joe's, and the game begins. Boy is it cold out! Game quickly passes by and it's over. Homecoming 1978 is at last over. What's the score?

The 1978 Homecoming Court: Kathy Miller, Mary Pat Hartnett, Anne O'Donnell, Mary Kay Locallo, Queen Linda Simeone.

This year's parade included many colorful floats and people (like the S.A. and their Chinese fire drills?). First place in the float contest went to the Business Club's "Spike". Chap's "Needle 'em" captured second place.

The Phi Kappa Fraternity let whoever dared smash this heap for $1.00 (Heck, they do it to Craven's car for nothing.)

The BSU Homecoming Court. Elected queen this year was Veda Williams.

Charlie Dillon escorting Linda Simeone, 1978 Homecoming Queen.

Men's Basketball

The 1978-79 basketball trail for the Pumas was a very successful one. The Pumas won the Puma 100 Classic, the first Great Lakes Valley Conference championship, and won the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional tournament. Then the Pumas proceeded to New Haven, Connecticut, at Yale University, where Saint Joe lost in the semifinals to Bridgeport, Connecticut, 92-82. The path of the Pumas finally ended. Congratulations, Pumas, on a fine 20-10 season!

Baseball

Baseball this year ended up with another winning season at 14-11. Due to inclement weather, many of the games were cancelled and numerous home games were never played. The games played at home, though, were exciting and when the players were not dodging rain drops they were scoring runs against their foes!

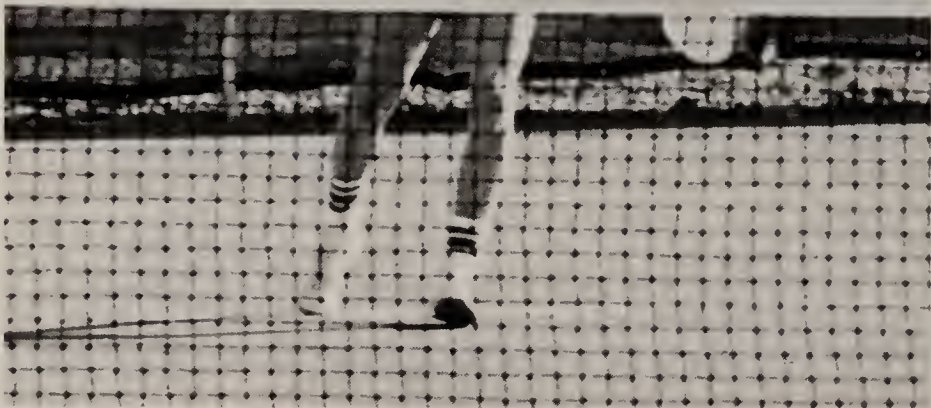

Front Row: Jack Emerson, Tim Henady, Floyd Bentley, Lamar Simmons, Charlie Vicars, Brian Klabunde, Don Steinhilber, Jose Fortuno. Involvement was the theme behind this year's Student Association. Led by president Mark Behnke, the association got students involved in activities that were worthwhile to the whole campus. Hey, did you win?

Little 500

Led by Queen Lynn Calhoun, this year's Little 500 will be remembered as not just another race. As Rich Huffine won the pole a week earlier, anticipation and rivalry soon set the mood of the race. After four hours of the race and all the bumps and black flags were finally figured out, Chuck Kahlig ruled the field with the checkered flag.

SIFE

SIFE, known as Students in Free Enterprise, got its start second semester of the school year as a business course. The main goal of the class was to promote free enterprise and to get students involved with it. Students set up seminars, worked with certain Core classes, and informed St. Joseph's College about SIFE. In April, Mary Kiefer, Steve Brouillette, and Cathy Kielbowski represented St. Joseph's in regional competition with other colleges dealing with free enterprise. St. Joseph's was recognized for accomplishing a great deal in its first year in the competition and Dr. Burkey, our advisor, received a plaque honoring St. Joseph's College for promoting the free enterprise system. Good luck next year.

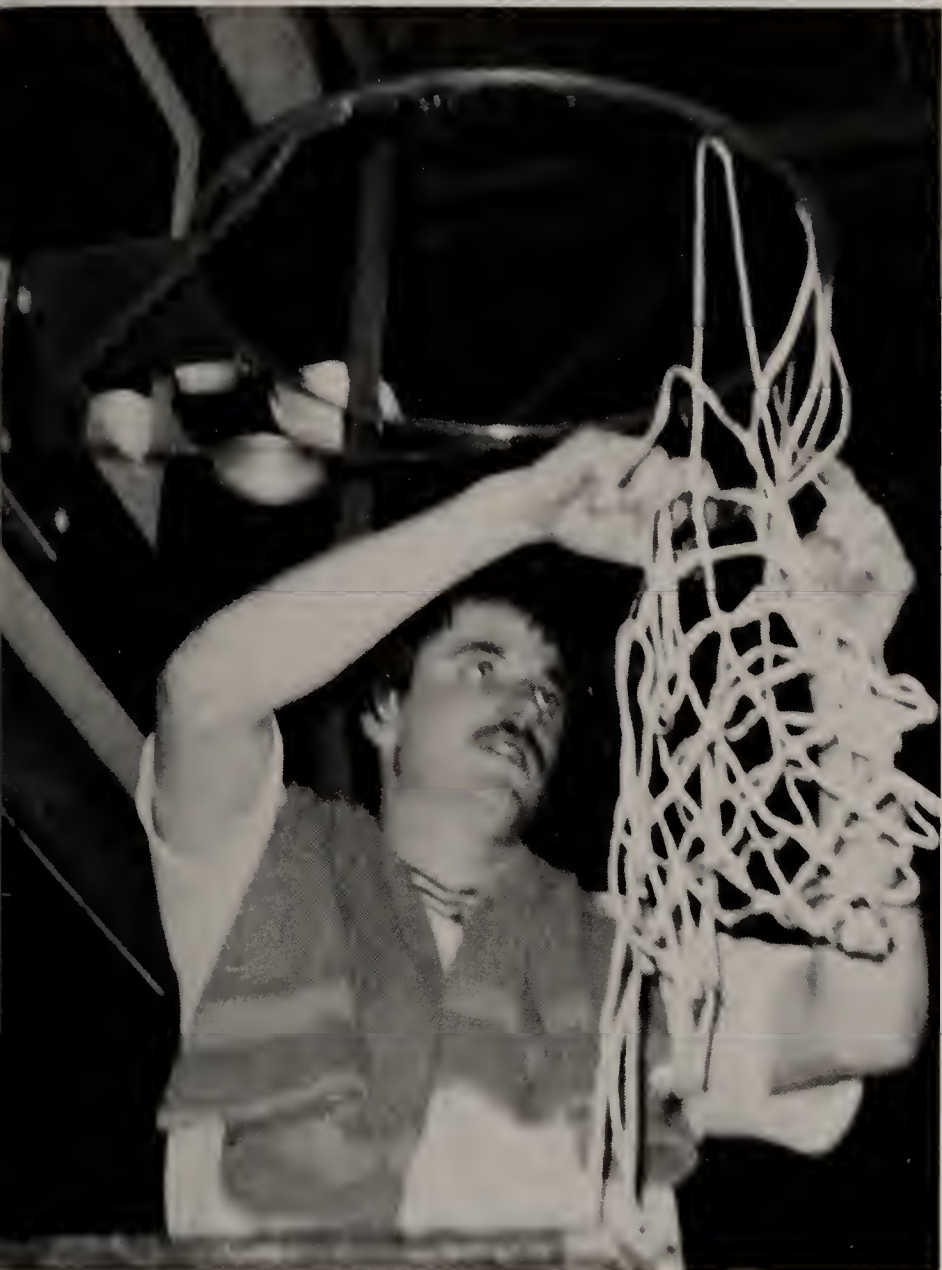

Spring Break

Spring break at St. Joseph's is a very special time. After many weeks of sleet, snow, and studying, students take off for "Fun in the Sun." Many students this year before going South stopped off in Dayton, Ohio and watched the Puma basketball team in the regionals beat Eastern Illinois, and host Wright State in the finals 73-68 to advance to the final eight in Division II.

From Russia With Love

With a short stop in Stockholm, Sweden, the tour landed at Leningrad international in the U.S.S.R.

For fifteen days, twenty-eight Pumas visited churches, museums, palaces, and parks.

The opera, ballet, and circus were other stops, along with Lenin's tomb, Gum department store, and four different Russian cities (Leningrad - Novgorod - Moscow - Kiev). After twenty departures and landings, all twenty-eight members of the group were glad to get back to the U.S. of A.

Graduation

"We did it early for a change this year, and the day actually didn't turn out too bad. The week off was just long enough to let us contemplate our life at St. Joe's — and short enough to keep our memories alive. By "Graduation Sunday" though, we accepted that life at St. Joe's would go on, but this — this last day as an SJC student — would be our day."

Faculty

"Our" faculty play a major part in Saint Joe's game. From those who've been here for a lifetime, to those who still anticipate tenure, numerous roles are acted out. Only at Saint Joe's can you joke with a prof in Gaspar in the morning, struggle through his test in the afternoon and discuss it over a beer at night. They guide us through our four years, leading us up the right roads. In the end, they can become our closest friends.
